COMMUNITY NEWS

Committee News

The current committee have agreed to continue for another term. Documents from AGM available <https://yra.isleofwightlife.co.uk/AGM> includes feedback from STC re-traffic issues.

We are hoping to hold more afternoon events during the colder darker months in 2025, and also support Browns Golf as an alternative venue, especially when bookings for Sandown Bowls & Sports Club are unavailable during the summer.

Membership

Please encourage new residents to join. Links to the quarterly Newsletter is emailed to those subscribed and available for download from the YRA website and YRA Facebook Group page. All YRA news, social events, membership information, is available online.

Parking validation at Bowls Club

Please validate your parking at Bowls Club when attending our social events by entering your details in the machine located by the entrance door or else you will receive a parking fine!

Community Bus No. 24 Service

The Community buses runs Tues, Thur & Fri except public holidays between Shanklin Bus Station and Yaverland Culver Way, via Lake Morrisons, Perowne Way Shops & Sandown High Street. The timetable can be found at <https://www.islandbuses.info/services/SVCT/24>

Volunteer/s Required:

We do need a volunteer or volunteers to maintain the seafront hut say once a year. Any expenses for cleaning materials or paint will be reimbursed upon receipts being produced. Please contact Mary Smith, 32 Culver Way or a committee member for further details.
